

Solutions for Your High-Volume Tax Business

Tax Software for High-Volume Tax Businesses

The CrossLink suite of tax software solutions is built for the needs of your high-volume tax business and enables the efficiency and reliability that are essential to your success. Whether you are a Service Bureau supporting a diverse customer base, a large organization with multiple locations, or a highly successful single-office operation, CrossLink has your solution.

The CrossLink Experience

Your needs as a high-volume tax business are different. The CrossLink team understands that your success is dependent upon the ability to provide your clients with fast and accurate tax refunds. And while your software plays a vital role, you also need a partner that respects your business and is dedicated to ensuring your success year-after-year. Every CrossLink customer receives:

- A dedicated account team
- Pre-season training
- 24x7 Multi-lingual support through the tax season

Isn't it time you experienced the difference of a tax software provider dedicated to the success of your business?

Single Tax Office

CrossLink 1040, a desktop solution, enables your high-volume tax office to do more with the same resources you have today so that you can improve profits by growing your business and reducing operating costs.

Multiple Tax Offices

With both desktop and online solutions for multi-site operations, CrossLink works with your business model.

CrossLink enables multi-site operations to spend less time on administration with centralized reporting for remote offices and individual preparers.

Service Bureau & Value Added Reseller

Grow your service and support organization quickly and efficiently with the CrossLink suite of products:

- Manage remote offices online
- Control user access and functionality
- Support multiple office environments

All High Volume Tax Businesses are not the same...
